

Suggested summer reading for students in grade 7.

The goal of the 7th grade teachers is to have students keep reading over the summer. There is a variety of types of literature and reading levels represented on this list. Some of the titles are from series (Look for ). If your child likes one in the series, perhaps he or she will continue reading! The teachers and the children's librarian from the Uxbridge Public Library have worked together to formulate this list, but it is not a guarantee that these specific title will always be available.
